REPORTED CHANGES. There may be something or nothing in the statement contained in a Washington dispatch to the Chicago News. which was republished in Tite Hennis of Thurs ay. The assertion, was, that "It is understood the President intends to make a number of changes in the administration of Utah. It is probable that the remaining members of the Utah Commission will be changed." As to the suggested changes in the personnel of the Utah Commission, it is not believed that anything will be done at present, with the exception of filling at present, with the test the vacancy caused by the resignation of Governor Ramsey, and possibly the removal of one other member of the Commission. Ramsey's resignation is final, and the gentieman will not return to Utah unless it be as a visitor. His place will necessarily have to be filled. There is a possibility, but not a probability, that other changes will be made. It is known that all of them are exceedingly anxious to hold on to the office. It provides them handsome salaries, without interfering with their other duties more than would the customary vacations from business. They come here twice a year at the expense of the railroads and the government, spend a few weeks very pleasantly, and then return to their respective homes to manage their private affairs. Naturally, they are loth to surrender their fat positions. Their chauses for holding on may be briefly stated. Judge Carleton is the personal prolege of Senator Dan Voor-hees, who secured the place for him and has since stood by his ward. Voorhees is a Democrat, and happens to be one of the most influential members of the the facts. Sometimes even an editor is party with this administration. He will certainly do what he can to keep will certainly do what he can to keep Carieton in while the latter desires to stay, and the Judge is not likely to voluntarily go while reason and life remain with him. The friend and backer of Mr. Pettigrew is the control of the state of scandal shall drive Garland out of the and decency. Cabinet, and destroy his influence, Pettigrew will stay where he is: There must be two Republicans on the Commission; the present Republican members are Senators Paddock, and that the time has arrived when the Salt on the Commission.

Ireland's term expires this month, and it may be the President's "intentions" in regard to changes were based on the proposition to appoint a success or to the thrifty Marshal. We are inclined, however, to believe the correspondent patterned after the Salt Lake agent of the Associated Press, and imagined his news item.

> THE GOVERNOR'S appointees to certain Territorial offices have instituted suits against the Incumbents, and thus the question of the rightfulness of the Executive claim to fill these places will be judicially determined. This is what should have been done years ago, when the conflict of authority first arose. No honest man cares to hold an office to which he is not entitled, and the public certainly does not desire its affairs administered by officials whose titles are not legal. If it shall be den. onstrated that the Auditor, Treasurer Superintendent of Disrict Schools and others in Territorial offices are holding by invalid titles, the incumbents wil gracefully retire, and the community will stand by and uphold the rightful claimants to the places. As a matter of course the suits will be pressed and fought vigorously until the final issue when the losing side will, it hoped, acquiesce, and the public be spared further annoyance regarding a question which has been before the community for fifteen or twenty years.

And so Murray and his friends are going to make an effort to have the President reconsider his demand for the resignation of His Excellency. It will be amusing to note the progress and result of the "determined effort." land is a man who can be so easily induced to change his mind about such a matter, you know.

It was painful, but the Tribune had to do it. A telegram from Washington was sent, stating the causes leading to the removal of its pet, Governor Murray and it could not escape publishing the to be pitied.

The Commission is in the place of the entrancing Ravelli, an absolutely useless body; there and an attenuated and indifferent was never the slightest occa-chorus made to do service for the sion for it, and the silliness of "chorus numbering one hundred" adcontinuing the organization daily vertised, would it have poured fourteen grows more apparent.
